

Greater Midwest Foodways Alliance

Beef: From Plains to Plate

Follow the Cattlemen's Trail to Savory Midwest Beef Traditions

October 23-25, 2009

Kendall College

900 North Branch Street, Chicago – FREE PARKING
(West of Halsted Street, North of Chicago Avenue)

Celebrate Midwestern beef foodways, from the desolate plains to meat processors who packed, wrapped and shipped their meat provisioning the global market.

We have limited seating for full-time students. Pay in advance, bring current school ID and picture identification when you arrive.

Recommended:

- $50 for beef cutting demonstration and Saturday's symposium. Save $10!

Friday, October 23rd:

- $10 for tour and luncheon at Great Lakes Naval Culinary "A" School (Limit 20)
- $25 for beef cutting demonstration ONLY at Kendall College.
- $100 for Founder's Dinner fundraiser (business attire)

Saturday, October 24th:

- $35 for symposium including lunch and refreshments ONLY.

Sunday, October 25th

- $5 for Culinary Curiosities tour at Kendall College (Limit 20)
- $5 for Maxwell Street tour. Food purchased separately.

I would like to donate in-kind product for Beef Symposium: $ _____

I would like to contribute to the underwriting of Beef Symposium: $ _____

Name: _____

Company/School: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

By mail to: Make check to: Greater Midwest Foodways, then mail to: 280 Laurel Ave., Highland Park, IL 60035

By cash: Taken at Culinary Historian or Chicago Foodways Roundtable meetings only.

By credit card: Go to brownpapertickets.com/event/80817 (nominal convenience charge)

Reservation may be made by phone at 847-432-8255 or

By email at GreaterMidwestFoodways@gmail.com

Include name, address, phone number and number of reservations.

Note: Prompt payment will confirm reservation. Phone or email registration constitutes paid reservation.

Sign up today! Registration is limited! Sponsorships available.

More information at www.GreaterMidwestFoodways.com